gone? Tell the world the sto - ry when the Boys are gone?

This music was in the attic of the Chapman home in Windham. The post office was also in this house at one time. Luther Chapman had a singing school in Windham. He wrote the music and his wife the words to some of the songs.

His grandson <sup>Howard Chapman</sup> gave the house to his son William Chapman. Several Chapmans have lived in that area for generations near the church.

Given to me by Howard Chapman in 1984 out of the house of the first Chapman.

My cousin is Howard Chapman and thought it should be saved.

Yours truly
